Subject: Proper handling of artwork sent for Thanjai Big Art Contest (TTBAC).

The Arohana Seva Foundation (ASF) and the Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Thanjavur are organizing the Thanjai Big Art Contest (TTBAC). In this contest, the contestants have to submit drawings/paintings in A3 or bigger sized paper. The organizers of the contest have sought reassurance from India Post that the artwork from the contestants would be handled with due care.

2. Since such artworks are very delicate and need special care in handling, it is requested to sensitize the officials to take proper care in handling such artwork destined for TTBAC, guide the senders properly in packaging their artwork in a safe and secure manner and opt for insurance of their parcels too.
